2009 ALICE LEHMEN SUNDAY PRIZE

Sponsored by AIA Richmond Chapter

ELIGIBILITY

Open to all Associate AIA members of the AIA Richmond Chapter and other non-licensed employees of firms or agencies employing architect members of the AIA Richmond Chapter. Entrants are limited to those with less than ten years working experience. Previous winners are eligible to enter. Previous submissions will not be eligible. There is no cost to enter.

CATEGORIES

Entries are requested in each of the following categories:

1. Sketches: Freehand only.
2. Presentation and Technology Drawings (manually drawn or computer generated).
3. Construction Documents (manually drawn or computer generated. May be a series of up to five drawings on one board).

CRITERIA

Entries are judged on the ability to clearly and efficiently communicate the information of the document to the user.

RULES

1. Maximum number of entries from each participant is limited to two (2) documents per category.
2. Each entry shall have attached a sealed envelope containing the participant's name, company / organization, principal supervisor, business telephone, and signature. The envelope must be attached in a manner which conceals any firm or individual's identification and names the category of entry on the outside. Each entry must be mounted on a rigid form (foam core, etc.) for display. All entries shall also include a compact disk with reproducible low-resolution (150 dpi) and high-resolution (300 dpi) JPG images of the entry in its final form.
3. Entries which are not the product of a single individual must include the names of all individuals responsible for their production.

AWARDS

Honor and Merit Awards will be presented in each category. Awards will include a Certificate and cash prizes of $150 for Best of Show, $100 for each Honor and $50 for each Merit award, per entry. Presentation of awards will occur during the Chapter Honors and Awards Program on April 10, 2009.
